Sufficient financial resources must be shown to be available to the individual who is taking financial responsibility for the student while the student is studying in the United States. These resources are to be in excess of the student’s total fees and estimated expenses; see the chart below. The financial statement must be no older than 90 days from the date of receipt of the application. Students who defer admission to the next term must submit a new financial statement.

Estimated Minimum Expenses

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Expense Type</th>
<th>Fall Term</th>
<th>Fall AND Spring Term</th>
<th>Summer Term (6 weeks)</th>
<th>Summer Term (12 weeks)</th>
<th>Full Academic Year</th>

</tbody>
</table>

*This estimate is based on shared housing and the use of public transportation. If you rent your own apartment or have a car, your expenses may be higher.

Note: Your financial statement and certification must demonstrate that the dollar amount in “Total fees and estimated expenses” is available in your account. All fees are subject to change without notice.

Program Fee Payment

Once you are accepted, please send your program fee to UC Berkeley Extension 30 days prior to the start of the term.

Organizational Sponsor’s Funds

If you are sponsored by an organization, attach a letter from your sponsor describing which expenses the sponsor will pay and fill out the following:

Name of sponsoring organization (company, agency, foundation or government)

☐ Sponsor’s letter attached

To be considered for admission, you must include all three pages of the enrollment application and all supporting documents.

Please send the application and enclosures to:
